NEW BAGGAGE RULES.

Something the Traveling Public Will Very Much Appreciate.

Chleago, Oct. 7 .- Woes of that part of the traveling public which occasion ally loses its baggage soon will be decreased, for the railroads are planning to put into effect a system of insuring baggage valued at not more that of rules prepared here yesterday with a view toward uniform baggage regu-lations. The joint committee which worked out the rules will present them all passenger associations for adop-

In order to take advantage of the order to take advantage of the proposed insurance the passenger will be required to declare the value of his haggage before starting on his fourney. In the event of value above $100 the passenger will be required to pay approximately 16 per cent of the excess buggage rate.

In percentage the new rule will figure out about 16 per cent of passenger rates for every $100 of value declared. Should the passenger carry, for example, $1,000 worth of buggage at additional charge of 16 per cent of the passenger rate will be made.

Capital Employment Agency.

Capital Employment Agency.

Established in Topeka the past 19 years.

Wants laborers for railroads and contractors, men to ship; bridge men; car repairers, shortly to review the decision of the circuit court of appeals for the Eighth circuit, which gave the railroad a right of way 400 feet wide through their land. Notice that such a request would be made has been filed in the offices of the court.

The right of way to a strip 400 feet wide was claimed under acts of congress of 1862, 1864, 1866 and 1869. Attorneys for the Colorado men assert that the railroad never claimed a right of way of over 106 feet through their land or the others in question in Kansas. Nebraska and Colorado, until 1906.

"For over 40 years it (the railroad) has stood by and seen cities and towns built upon said lands," continues the attorneys in their formal paper, which they announce will be presented to the court in open session, "and other valuable improvements made thereon, without making any claim whatever thereto on its part."

It is contended that if the decision of the circuit court of appeals in this case is allowed to stand as a precedent, it will, in the city of Denver alone, give the railroad company a strip of land.

First International Humane Congress Meets In Washington.

One of the most important meetings to be held this year will be the first American international humane conference, which will be conducted by the American Humane association in Washington from Oct. 10 to 15. It will be under the honorary presidency of President William H. Taft, and many prominent speakers from all over the world are expected to address the meetings This is the first attempt which has ever been made to hold an international conference which shall embrace both departments of anti-cruelty work. The anti-cruelty crusade for animals began in the United States through the efforts of Henry Bergh in 1866. The first society for the prevention of cruelty to chaldren in the world was organized in New York city in 1874 by Henry Beigh, Elbridge E. Gerry and John D. Wright. During its existence the New York society has received 252,062 complaints, involving the custody of 740,245 children; 122,623 cases were prosecuted, resulting in 105,946 convictions, and 100,877 children have been rescued and cared for. The average number of children's cases handled by the New York society is nearly 16,000 a year. Last year the anti-cruelty societies in the United States expended more than $1,000,-000 and cared for 175,613 children and 1,048,913 animals. William Olin Stillman, M. D., president of the American Humane association, the national organization for the anti-cruelty cause, is a many sided man of many accomplishments-physician, surgeon, philanthropist, antiquarian, medical author, writer and lecturer. He was born in 1856 in Normansville, N. Y.
